TO CONTINUE IS FINAL EDICT OF EMPEROR WILLIAM

ENTENTE POWERS WISH MEMBER OF COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD NOT APPOINTED BY GOV.

TO THEIR "HUNGER FOR POWER" REASONABLE PEACE
OFFERINGS REFUSED DECLARES
KAISER—WILL FIGHT TO LAST.

(The Associated Press.)

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 6.—A Berlin telegram which has caused tremendous excitement here quotes an order from Emperor William to the German military forces stating that the war is to be continued.

The ruler of Germany declared the entente powers had refused reasonable peace offers so on them lays the responsibility for the continuation of the war. He stated their "hunger for power desires Germany's destruction."
He urged the army and navy to become as invincible as steel.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH COMPLETED

FIRST SUNDAY SERVICE TO BE HELD IN NEW BUILDING ON CORNER OF LIVE OAK AND PALMETTO TOMORROW.

The beautiful new $14,000 Christian Science church building on the corner of Live Oak street and Palmetto avenue, is now complete except for a few minor details. The first Sunday service will take place tomorrow morning at 11:00. A prayer service was held Wednesday evening.

At the regular annual meeting held Friday night, Fred J. Weber, of 526
South Ridgewood avenue, a winter resident from Buffalo, N. Y., was made first reader for the coming year. Miss Nevlyn Clark received the place of second reader.

The new church is the finest place of public worship in Daytona. It was built during the past summer months
by L. Z. Burdick, the well known Seabreeze contractor. The exterior architecture is of modernized Grecian style. Four large white columns supporting the roof over the front veranda and steps and the main walls are built of buff colored brick.

The building's interior is even more attractive and much resembles the interior of the Palmetto club house on Orange avenue. All woodwork is of ivory finish with white plastered walls.
The glass windows are also cream colored. The capacity of the main auditorium, with its gallery is about 500 people. Two hundred seats are now in place for the regular meetings. The gallery is so arranged that it may be used for a Sunday school room. At the rear of the building is the auditorium stage, reading rooms and toilets. A system of indirect light has been purchased at a cost of $400 but has not arrived for installation.
Regular services will be held each Sunday and Wednesday hereafter.

CAPTURE OF BRAILA TO CHANGE RUMANIAN CAMPAIGN MATERIALLY

TEUTONS TAKE FIVE RUMANIAN TOWNS BESIDES BRAILA AND REACH SERETH RIVER AT TWO POINTS.

(The Associated Press.)

The Rumanian campaign reached a new phase with the capture of Braila
by the Teutons and their rapid advance on Galatz, clearing Dobrudja of Russians and further German successes in Moldavia. The Braila bridgehead is an outlying defense of the Sereth line which the Russians still hold. Galatz is behind this line.

Reports from Berlin say that five Rumanian towns besides Braila have been captured by the Teutons and the Sereth river reached at two points. It was also made public that the German troops yesterday stormed the Russian defenses on an extended front south of Trotus valley near the Moldavian frontier.

Entente officers believe the Russians will withdraw from Sereth to the Russian frontier or into Bessarabia.

JOHN ANDERSON HIGHWAY REPAIRED AT HASTINGS

E. A. Lapp, who, accompanied by Mrs. Lapp, made an automobile trip to Jacksonville this week, while in the News office Friday afternoon stated that the John Anderson highway had been put in good repair through the Hastings section where the road was recently under water and badly washed out in places by heavy rains.

Mr. Lapp also said, while speaking of roads, that after driving over the various kinds of roads in use in Jacksonville he had come back home feeling deep satisfaction in the fact that the roads in this district were being paved with asphaltic concrete as this material made far and away the best roads in and around Jacksonville.

SYSTEMATIC SCHOOLS IN DAYTONA ATTRACT AUTHORITIES' NOTICE

LETTER OF NATIONAL EDUCA-TIONAL SOCIETY SHOWS CITY
AMONG MOST MODERN IN ITS PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM.

The majority of Daytona people realize and appreciate the systematic way in which the public school of the city has been conducted since H. Clay Marks has been supervising principal but few or none know that Mr. Marks has introduced some ideas which will very probably become national in their use.

Among these new features is the co-operative hygiene blank, which is filled out each month by each teacher and parent, giving a full report of the health and bodily habits of the pupils. On receiving one of these blanks to fill regarding his ten-year-old boy, Percy Warner, Attorney G. C.
Warner, of the well known New York firm, Holt, Warner & Galliard, became interested and wrote Mr. Marks, asking for a few sample blanks. Mr.
Warner also wished to know to what extent the plan of co-operative hygiene has been adopted throughout the country, where it originated and how it can best be developed. He also sent congratulations to the principal upon what he had heard as to Daytona schools.

Mr. Marks immediately replied that although the plan had originated with him, he could not tell how many other schools had adopted it. He further said that such a plan can be used for other studies and gave details concerning the development of such a plan.

On communication with school authorities, Mr. Warner received the following letter from the National Society for the Promotion of Industrial education:

"140 W. 42nd Str. New York, December 29, 1916.

"My Dear Mr. Warner:
"Except in a very general way, I

LAWSON CHARGED $300,000 PROFIT TO "LEAKAGE" OF NEWS

IMPROVING BAD SECTION DELAND- DAYTONA ROAD

At the invitation of C. F. Burgman, new member from this district of the board of county commissioners, a representative of the News accompanied him on a little excursion this morning to that section of the Deland road through the hammock lands east of Mount Ararat which has been giving trouble because of the soft condition of the ground.

The improvement of this piece of roadway was among the first official acts of Commissioner Burgman, who realized the necessity for having this main connection with the county seat and other interior points in passable condition. He secured the county convicts earlier in the week and had the roadbed in this section leveled up with the idea of putting the Proudfoot roller over it today and then covering the surface of the road with sand from Mount Ararat.

Rain again last night, however, had so softened the road that it was impracticable to put the roller upon it and it was decided to have the convicts fill the ruts and cover the roadway with a blanket of sand several inches in depth, or as much as was found necessary to absorb the surplus moisture and form a crust or surface that would not readily cut through. This is undoubtedly the only way to better the road under present conditions, as it is impossible to deal with the situation in any other manner while rains continue to keep the ground in a saturated condition.

On arrival at Mt. Ararat this morning the convicts were found gathered there while the teams, five or six in number, were traveling the boggy roadway to the east end of the fill, instead of beginning at the point nearest to the place where the sand was obtained. Mr. Burgman got this straightened out and also the matter of loading the wagons so they could arrive at Mount Ararat at intervals and not all at once. He is desirous of getting as much work done as possible while he can have the convicts, between 25 and 30 in number, as they are soon to go to W. Z. Hayman's, district No. 3, and other districts and it may be some time before he can again have their services. They were short of necessary tools and as more teams
could be worked to advantage, Mr.

IDENTITY OF A CURTIS REMAINS A MYSTERY

EMPLOYEES OF WALL STREET
JOURNAL AND CENTRAL NEWS
SUBPOENAED — CHIPERFIELD
OBJECTS TO QUESTIONING.

(The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Representative Chipperfield of Illinois, a Republican member of the house rules committee declared at the "leak" hearing that he understood Thomas W. Lawson was the chief beneficiary of the decline of the stock market following the publication of President Wilson's peace note. He stated he understood Lawson's transactions aggregated three hundred thousand dollars.

The declaration was made when Representative Harrison, a democrat, asked Representative Wood why he did not satisfy himself as to the identity of "A. Curtis" who wrote him a letter giving forth the alleged information. Then Representative Chipperfield declared he objected to Harrison's line of questioning, saying that the committee seemed to be "losing sight of the fact that these scandalous
charges had been made by Thomas W.
Lawson of Boston." The committee held that Harrison's questions were entirely proper and just.

After a hot debate Representative
Wood stated a number of congressmen told him there was a broker by the name of "A. Curtis" operating in Wall street, New York.

Gardner of Massachusetts told the committee that he was convinced there was a "leak" and the intimation that something might be expected was carried on the Dow Jones ticket service four hours before the note was in the hands of the press. Employees of the Wall street Journal and the Central News of America have been subpoenaed.

Burgman decided to send out any more he could secure on his return to the city.

The hard surfacing of this section of the Deland road will not be commenced until after the close of the winter season and in the meantime it will be a question of keeping the roadway in as good condition as possible for the heavy travel to which it will be subjected. Weather conditions will count materially in this work.

Harvey Jones, who is temporarily filling the position of road superintendent, was not at the work this morning, the convict guards stating that he had come to town to see Mr. Burgman.

SUN BROTHERS SHOWS WELL PATRONIZED HERE

tona engagement last night by exhibiting to a tent full of people, who attested their approval by liberal applause. The trained elephants presented the best act of its kind of any show in America, while the performing seals are enthusiastic workers.
The real feature, hair-raising stunt is near the close when a descendent of the land of the Montezumas slides down an inclined steel cable while standing on his head. Sun Brothers will do to warm up to in the circus

A western buyer is inordinately proud of the fact that one of his ancestors affixed his name to the Declaration of Independence. At the time the salesman called, the buyer was signing a number of checks and affixed his signature with many a curve and flourish. The salesman's patience becoming exhausted in waiting for the buyer to recognize him, he finally observed: "You have a fine signature, Mr. So-and-So." "Yes," admitted the buyer, "I should have. One of my forefathers signed the Declaration of Independence."

Miss Stevens, as "Diamond Daisy," Doyle, a woman of the underworld in "The Wager" is called upon to depict a great change which takes place in the spirit of a feminine crook. Because of Daisy Doyle's cleverness as a diamond thief, the police have been unable to convict her. Detective Duggan, who has sent her sweetheart, "Slippery Jim," to prison, is determined that she shall go the same route.
Daisy, deeply in love with Jim, decides to reform. Here is where the strongest phase of Miss Stevens' emotional art is seen. She depicts on the screen the struggle of Daisy Doyle's soul to "find itself," and she does it with wonderful effect.
"The Wager" will be presented at the Crystal tonight.

GRAHAM PUDDING.—Mix one and one-half cups of graham flour with one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful of nutmeg and one cupful of chopped raisins. Add one beaten egg, one cupful of molasses, one cupful of sweet milk, one scant teaspoonful of soda dissolved in one tablespoonful of boiling water and finally add one teaspoonful of butter, melted. Beat thoroughly, steam three hours and serve with liquid sauce.

Fruit Pudding.—One and one-half cups of chopped beef suet, one and one-half cups of milk, one cupful molasses, one-half cupful sugar, four cupfuls flour (sifted), four cupfuls seeded raisins, one cupful currants, one teaspoonful cloves, one grated nutmeg, a little salt, one teaspoonful soda dissolved in the milk. Pour in mold and boil for four hours. Sauce—Two cupfuls sugar, two heaping tablespoonfuls cornstarch. Mix well, then add three cupfuls boiling water. Boil slowly on back of stove two hours. As it boils away add a little more water. When ready to serve pudding, in your sauce bowl cream one tablespoonful best butter and one small grated nutmeg, pour the boiling sauce over this and stir until mixed. The sauce should be just thick enough to pour.

Popover Pudding.—Make popovers from any good recipe and bake carefully so that they will be high and firm with big cavities. Cut or break off the top from each one and fill with thick custard mixed with broken nut meats. Replace the tops and serve either with hot chocolate sauce or with a spoonful of whipped cream on each.

Honey Pudding.—One-half cupful honey, six ounces breadcrumbs, one-half cupful milk, one-half teaspoonful ginger, two eggs, two tablespoonfuls butter, rind of one-half lemon. Mix the honey and the breadcrumbs and add the milk, seasonings and the yolks of the eggs. Beat the mixture thoroughly and then add the butter and the whites of the eggs, well beaten. Steam for about two hours in a pudding mold which is not more than three-quarters full.

IN "THE RIGHT DIRECTION"

Polly Eccles, a beautiful waif of the New York slums has important responsibilities thrown upon her little shoulders at an age when the average girl still feels that her doll requires her most serious attention. When Polly's father, a drunkard, is taken away by the police as a result of the death of her invalid mother, she becomes the sole arbiter of not only her own destiny but that of "Billy Boy," her sick baby brother, as well.

The charity doctor suggests a change of climate for "Billy Boy" and advises little Polly that California would be the proper place for him. However, Polly and "Billy Boy" are in New York with little means of traveling to any other place. Determined to save Billy, the little waif sells such furnishings as her flat still holds and with her baby brother comfortably installed in a dilapidated baby carriage piled high with pans, pots and other supplies, she is ready to set out for her destination. However, her great worry is to get started in the right direction. Finally in reply to her query a surprised stranger indicates the direction of California and the "little mother" loses no time in getting under way.

They are hardly outside the city when the front axle of the ancient baby carriage breaks. As Polly is trying to repair her axle with a piece of string an automobile drives up and Kirk Drummond, son of a wealthy California mine owner, leaps out and assists her. The damage is soon repaired and at the invitation of Kirk, who is making an automobile tour of California, the little travelers are given a "lift" for some twenty miles nearer their goal. Kirk and Polly part the best of friends, the young man leaving her to meet his chum who is to make the transcontinental auto trip with him. Various amusing as well as exciting incidents occur to Polly while on her way to the West Coast, including an affair which involves a thrilling race between a freight train and Kirk's automobile. The rich man's son again comes to her rescue, which this time is a more serious affair, and saves her life as well as those of "Billy Boy" and "Rags," a homeless hound which Polly had adopted on her trip.

Kirk, Polly, "Billy Boy" and "Rags" make the balance of the trip together. Kirk's chum having been called back to the bedside of his sick mother and all finally arrive at their destination. Polly secures a job as waitress at the miners' boarding house owned by Kirk's father. The elder Drummond has had serious reports concerning his son's trip with a girl of the slums, which results in a heated argument between the two Drummonds. Kirk returns to college and due to his father's refusal to hear his explanation, their feeling becomes strained. Later John Drummond learns that Polly is in his own employ and immediately discharges her. A strange surprise is in store for him, however, which results in a complete change of heart as far as Polly is concerned and the sad departure from this earth of "Rags" who leaves in a "blaze of glory" while carrying away a stick of dynamite which helps his mistress save the life of the mine owner. Kirk is also given a surprise when he returns from college and greets an extremely pretty Polly, a healthy "Billy Boy" and a changed father.

BIG WAR PICTURE AT THE NEW DAYTONA TUES.
A magnificent spectacle in which the most popular author and the most eminent composer in America collaborated will be seen in "The Fall of a Nation," at the New Daytona on January 9th and 10th. Thomas Dixon author of "The Clansman," "The Birth of a Nation" and other famous works, wrote and directed the film, whilst delightful and entertaining Victor Herbert composed the music.

The result of their joint efforts is a grand opera cinema that presents in a big, epoch-making way the origin and destiny of the American Republic. No other picture equals its truly wonderful depiction of Twentieth Century war. Withal the love story is a fascinating one, the comedy episodes are thoroughly amusing, and the acting will satisfy the most exacting lovers of sterling dramatic art.

What the writers say concerning "The Fall of a Nation":
New York Staats Zietung: The spectacle is unique because of the never-forgotten battle pictures—so overpowering strong that they suggest the real life in Artoids and before Verdun. Victor Herbert's ambitious music is a fine piece of work, and creates atmosphere.

Mme. Rose de Vaux-Royer: Your presentation of "The Fall of a Nation" is wonderful—far surpassing anything I have ever seen.
Ex-Chief Justice Alton B. Parker:

POSITION OF BRIDGE AT CROWS BLUFF FERRY IS CHANGED

County Commissioner C. F. Burman and Michael Sholtz returned yesterday from a visit to Jacksonville where they went to consult with Major W. B. Ladue, of the United States corps of engineers, regarding the construction by Mr. Sholtz of a bridge over the St. Johns river at Crows Bluff, objections having been filed to the erection of the bridge at that point, because of its proximity to a sharp bend in the river. A proposition by Mr. Sholtz to erect the bridge at a point about 400 feet south of the ferry met with favor and it will be constructed at that point, although it means additional expense because of marsh land encountered.

Skating Is Old Pastime.

Skating, the origin of which is lost in antiquity, was mentioned by a Danish historian in 1134, and English authorities state that in Lincolnshire there was skating even before the twelfth century, the custom having been introduced there from Holland. The Eskimos used bone skates when they were first discovered by the whites, and probably had done so for centuries.

From Bad to Worse.

New Boarder—"Our landlady seems to be deeply interested in the European war news." Old Boarder—"Well, I hope she doesn't contemplate the substitution of hardtack and salt pork for hash and prunes."

Listen, girls: If you have never met your ideal man, you haven't missed much.—Galveston News.

DAYTONA BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Olds of Lansing, Mich., are expected today to spend another winter at their home on Hollywood avenue. These people are winter residents who have been coming here for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mortimer, of Hartford, Mich., arrived this week to enjoy another winter at their home on the corner of Harvey street and Palmetto avenue. This is the seventh winter which they have spent at their home here.

Langdon Davis and friend Robert Byrne, who have been spending the winter holidays at the home of Mr. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Davis, will leave tomorrow on their return to Yale university at New Haven, Conn. They have had a very pleasant time during their two weeks vacation and do not like to think of going again to the cold of a northern winter.

C. C. Vandeker, of Des Moines, Ia., arrived Friday afternoon to spend the winter here. He is now staying at a local hotel. Mr. Vandeker has not been a visitor to the beach for twelve years, when he spent two weeks at the Seaside Inn. He says that he can only remember two or three buildings as being the same. He leaves today for Miami on business and will return at the end of next week.

The crowd at the croquet grounds on the corner of Seabreeze avenue and Live Oak street, increases daily as new people come in from the north to spend the winter here. This attractive park has made Daytona Beach many friends among the people from Indiana, Ohio, Maine, New Hampshire and other states. The pleasant pastimes enjoyed there are dear to the hearts of these men, numbers of whom are brought back each year by their wish to meet their old comrades and play quoits or croquet with the same old partners. This public ground is one of the many things which make the saying true, "that when beach sand once fills your shoes you can not help but return again."

Guarding Against Fires in Austria.

As a preventive against fire Austrian laws require dwellings and business houses to be built throughout of solid materials.

Cause for Difference.

"I never seed a cullud man dat treated his wife wid mo' respect dan yo' does yo'n, sah." "Uh-well, sah," replied Brother Shivers. "yo' never seed a cullud man's wife dat could whip de husband of her bizzom mo' exclusively dan mine kin whip me when she gits eradicated."—Kansas City Star.

Several Possible Meanings.

The Thinker—"I've got a letter from my son out West." His Friend—"What is Tom doing now?" The Thinker—"That's what I can't make out. He says he is engaged in the destruction of weeds. Now, that may mean he's smoking a good many cigars or that he is trying to induce some widow to make a second venture, or it may mean that he is doing farm work."

Skirting the Difficulty

She—"How do you like my skirt, dearie?" He—"Well, pet, I suppose it's all right; but isn't it a bit long or a kilt?"

SEABREEZE

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Davis, who recently arrived from their northern home in Aurora, Ill., left Friday on a tour of the state. They have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Colliver on Ocean avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Gambell and members of their family will arrive from Detroit, Mich., on January 10 to occupy their home on Halifax avenue and the river front, just north of Glenview boulevard. These people have spent many winters at the beach and are welcomed to the south again by their many friends.

Carl Sholtz leaves tomorrow for Yale university, New Haven, Conn., after spending a pleasant two weeks with his family at their home on the ocean front above the Hotel Clarendon. Young Mr. Sholtz has many friends here who will not like to have him leave but who wish him the best success in the completion of his college life and work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rouser of Lansing, Mich., expected to arrive today from their northern home to occupy their beautiful residence on Halifax avenue. Several Possible Meanings.

The Thinker—"I've got a letter from my son out West." His Friend—"What is Tom doing now?" The Thinker—"That's what I can't make out. He says he is engaged in the destruction of weeds. Now, that may mean he's smoking a good many cigars or that he is trying to induce some widow to make a second venture, or it may mean that he is doing farm work."

Following resolutions were passed by a unanimous vote: received by the Daytona Seabreeze Fire department in resolution.

That the explanatory letter be published in the Daytona Seabreeze Fire department in resolution.

That we condemn the action of the retiring secretary, Jack B. Rouser, for the repeated and unjust attacks published in the Gazette.

That these letters were published to discourage interest in the department, to cause prejudice, blame and innocent people in order to vindicate himself.

That we will endeavor in the future to pull together in harmony for the betterment of the department and the town of Daytona Beach.

That these resolutions be of record for publication.

Sign of Physical Wrong.

Dark rings under the eyes show that the body, in one way or another, is being overtaxed by worry, or that the nervous system is deranged. Lack of sleep, late hours, or an irregularity of the bowels will bring these gray, weary lines. Drink plenty of water every day; get out of doors regularly; look after the diet and get to bed early.

Perfumes Prevent Nausea.

A New York physician reports that he has been very successful in preventing the nausea so apt to follow an anesthetic by the application of the nostrils of the patient of a pleasant perfume, preferably oil of bitter orange peel, as the ether or chloroform is discontinued. He elevates the patient's head a little and turns it to one side, fastening a little adhesive plaster to the tip of the nose and saturating this with cologne. Or if the patient has a mustache the perfume may be placed on that. He says the result is not always efficacious in preventing nausea after the anesthetic, but in many cases it is.

Thirteen guns were fired today at noon in honor of the opening of the 15th season of the Hotel Clarendon. The great hostelry has been entirely renovated since the close of last season and many new suites and rooms have been decorated and arranged.

The grand opening ball for the home friends of the hotel will take place as usual tonight. Dinner will be served between 6:30 and 9:00 and the ball commences at 9:00. The main lobbies of the building have been beautifully decorated in honor of the opening night. Music will be furnished by Tucker's orchestra and fully 800 people are expected from Daytona, the peninsula, and neighboring towns, to attend the opening function.

TOWNS URGES ANTI-DRUG INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—In connection with proposed amendments to the Harrison Narcotic law which are to be considered by congress, Charles B. Towns of New York, an authority on anti-drug legislation, urges that congress empower President Wilson to appoint a committee to investigate the whole subject of federal responsibility in the solution of the habit-forming drug problem. Devoting a twenty-page pamphlet to "the information of congress," Mr. Towns declares that the findings of such a federal committee would help the various states to arrive at a uniform solution of the drug problem, and "would establish a legislative, medical and sociological precedent that would give this country for the first time the primacy it ought to have in asking other countries to join with us once and for all in terminating this evil."

"My findings have shown," said Mr. Towns, "that not more than ten per cent of those afflicted with the drug habit are entitled to use drugs continuously because of physical disability. We are sacrificing ninety per cent of those who could be well and normal without the drug to alleviate suffering of some few incurable persons."

Among many loopholes in the present laws, Mr. Towns pointed out that a drug-taker or any person purporting to be a drug-taker can at present have just as many physicians prescribing a narcotic for him as he may see fit to have, and he may demand just as much of the drug as he chooses to take.

"The doctor does not have to find out whether or not the patient is a confirmed drug-taker; he can take the man's word for it and prescribe just what the patient asks for. A few such 'patients' could practically corner almost the entire habit-forming drug market and, if they wanted to do so, could establish themselves in the habit-forming business."

After pointing out the extent to which many so-called patent medicines and "proprietary" are responsible for the growth of drug addiction, Mr. Towns suggested that one solution of the drug problem might be to restrict the manufacture, sale, prescribing and administering of opiates strictly to crude opium, to laudanum and paregoric, and to hold the physician to a strict accounting of all these he personally prescribes or administers.

"We can dispense even with morphine and all of the opium alkaloids," he said. "I can go back to the time in the south when there was an old rosewood medicine chest with a ball of opium and a vial of paregoric and these easily met every possible need where opiates were considered necessary to alleviate pain. The medical profession would not be inconvenienced in the slightest degree by such a restriction and it would at once eliminate every unfavorable hazard that has grown out of the use of habit-forming drugs for medical prescription."

Mr. Towns also urged that the sale of hypodermic syringes should be restricted to purchase by physicians' prescription. "Outside of New York state," he said, "these can be bought in any drug store and in most department stores as easily as a package of chewing gum." He declared that the nurse should not be allowed possession of a hypodermic needle except by the physician's order and that the dose to be administered should at all times be strictly regulated by the physician.

"A committee of able men appointed by the president with adequate appropriation to enable them to conduct hearings and make investigations and empowered to go to the bottom of the drug problem—take off the roof and open up the whole business to the blue sky, could do wonders," said Mr. Towns. "The states could then enact proper correlative and interacting legislation and the drug situation would be securely in hand."

"As soon as the war is over the time will be ripe and right for us to bring about the necessary international understanding on this subject with all of the prime movers of the world."

Skating Demands Fancy Costume

FOR the rink is this novel and dainty outfit of pale blue panne velvet, featuring a long coat over pantslets, with garter bottoms. The dress, the collar and the leg-o'-mutton sleeves are banded with white fox, a tuft of which tops the military little top.

Most of the suit coats have fur collar-high chokers, high roll collars or big cape collars—and many of the one piece frocks in cloth or velvet also have these fur collars. Naturally such a collar, the chin or stock collar in particular, would be a torturing thing for indoor wear, but some designers have been sane enough to make these collars detachable or, more clever still, to make them so that they may be worn as tight chokers or loosened and turned down that they appear to be merely wide fur bands across the backs of satin or chiffon flat collars.

Separate skirts in plaited effect and in a big choice of woolen materials also in silk and in satin, are now displayed.

Flower motifs painted on silk hose and footwear for evening use add to the attractiveness of these accessories.

Don't Lean on Your Elbows.

When the writer was a little girl her mother used to warn her constantly against leaning on her elbows. "You will have rough elbows like the gossips who have nothing to do but lean out of their windows and watch their neighbors," she would cry, and then the small daughter would examine her little fat arms anxiously, twisting herself painfully in the effort to be assured that her elbows did not betray her in so unmistakable a fashion. I wonder how many would remember that nowadays when the habit of leaning on the elbows, "restaurant fashion," has become so universal that it is almost impossible to teach the children to sit properly at table because of the example set them by their elders? Pretty elbows are the exception rather than the rule in most cases and it does indeed take little to roughen and disfigure them. A round elbow is not necessarily a point of beauty, as it indicates a tendency to embonpoint if there is too much flesh about the bone.

Old Stonehenge.

Stonehenge is nine miles north of Salisbury, in England. The name comes from the Saxon Stanhengest, or "Hanging Stones." They constitute the ruins of an ancient sanctuary. In the middle is the so-called altar—a slab of blue marble. Most of the larger stones are sandstone, the others are granite. Someone has said of Stonehenge that it is to England what the pyramids are to Egypt. Scientists have declared that the old castle belongs to an epoch nearly two thousand years before the birth of Christ.

VACANT BUILDING LAND TO BE USED FOR FOOD CROPS

LONDON LOCAL AUTHORITIES
ADOPT WELL KNOWN LATE AMERICAN'S PET SCHEME TO RAISE CROPS.

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The scarcity of foodstuffs has led the board of agriculture to empower local authorities to use vacant building land for food crops. The Vacant Land Cultivation society, a pet scheme of the late Joseph Fels, who was widely known in the United States, has already been entrusted by the government with the whole work in London, and will be able, through the London County council, to acquire any untaxed land that is suitable. The society allots small pieces of land to families for cultivation purposes. At present the society has about 800 holders working some eighty acres around London.

Apart from public gardens and parks there are 14,000 acres of idle land in London, and experience has shown that London land is capable of producing at war prices well over $500 worth of food per acre. So great is the public interest in the scheme that the Vacant Land society is being snowed under by applications from every kind of person, many of them "land-hungry" countrymen settled in London.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Lengthen the skirts and shorten the shoes as another wartime economy, was the plea made in parliament the other day. The member told of going through the fashionable quarter of London's shopping district and finding women's footwear selling for from $10 to $15 a pair the average length of the uppers being from 10 to 16 inches. He found some as high as 22 inches.

SUGAR PLANTERS GET LOAN OF $500,000

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

PANAMA, Dec. 15.—The assembly of Panama has passed a bill authorizing the government to spend $500,000 in loans to sugar plantation operators or in guaranteeing payment of loans and interest on them contracted outside. Loans by the government must be repaid within ten years. The applicant for assistance must be a producer of 15,000 tons of raw sugar per annum; and must have already invested at least one-half of the amount for which he asks.

The bill was gathered by Deputy Eusebio A. Morales, formerly minister of Panama to the United States. A rider provides a subsidy of half a cent gold per kilogram of white granulated sugar produced in the country.

80 BILLION DOLLARS INDEMNITY IS WHAT GERMANY MAY PAY?

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

PARIS, Dec. 11.—A French economist, Barthélemy Rey, who is the first Frenchman of any note to examine the subject of indemnity in detail, declares that if the Entente allies are victorious Germany will be called upon to pay four hundred and one billion francs, or at the normal rate of exchange about eighty billion dollars. He says that the Central powers will be able to pay off the whole of such an indemnity in fifty years at the rate of nearly fifteen billions a year.

Summing up, according to M. Rey, on assumption that the war will continue until next July, the items of indemnity are:

Billions
Allies' State War expenses	280
Allies' Provincial expenses	10
Allies' Compensation for damage	36
Allies' Pensions	75
Total	401

LITHUANIA EXPECTS TO BECOME REPUBLIC

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Lithuania, a region on the Russo-German Baltic greater in extent and population than Sweden, has had her aspirations stirred by the war and is looking forward to emerging from it either as an independent republic patterned on American lines, or as an autonomous nation with its own parliament and home rule, except to Russia's imperial authority only in matters of national defense.

This was the view outlined to the Associated Press by Martin Ychas, member of the Russian duma, where he represents the important Lithuanian city of Kovno, and occupies the post of secretary of the finance committee. Mr. Ychas is conferring here with the large Lithuanian colony, following similar visits just made in the United States.

"It should be understood," said Mr. Ychas, "that Lithuania is entirely distinct from Poland, although the public is in the habit of treating them as one. Poland is the great central region around Warsaw, whereas Lithuania and the Lett country is the vast northern section along the Baltic, with the great ports of Riga, Libau and Windau, and the cities of Vilna, Grodno, Kovno and Suwalki, aggregating eight million population, or more than any of the secondary kingdoms of Europe."

"Like Poland, Lithuania has her own hopes and aspirations," continued Mr. Ychas, "and with my colleagues in the duma we have already secured the acceptance in principle of complete political autonomy for Lithuania. This means home rule the same as Canada, with a Lithuanian cabinet and Lithuanian parliament, with Lithuanian delegates in the imperial duma and a Lithuanian viceroy from the czar. There are unofficial hopes going far beyond this, particularly among the Lithuanians in the United States. But officially we look to autonomy as the first step to restoring Lithuania as a nationality. In the duma the controlling authority, the constitutional democrats, or cadet party, has accepted in principle autonomy for Lithuania and it was by cadet votes that I, as a Lithuanian, was elected secretary of the finance committee."

"In America, however, I found a strong movement for securing complete Lithuanian independence and setting up a Lithuania-Lett republic. Our native press in America is very strong for independence. They look to the entente allies to secure this as one of the results of the war, holding that England entered the war in defense of small nationalities. These, however, are unofficial hopes for the future, and all that I can officially assume is that complete autonomy and home rule for Lithuania is an accepted principle to the ruling authorities in the duma. The imperial government has not yet spoken, pending the invasion of Lithuania by Germany, but when normal conditions are restored the government will undoubtedly approve the autonomy already agreed to in principle by the duma."

Mr. Ychas says Russia has considerably improved political conditions in Lithuania in recent years. Formerly the holding of lands by Lithuanians was prohibited; the press was prohibited; all Lithuanian books including the Bible were prohibited; holding office was prohibited. All this has been changed Mr. Ychas says, and there was a fair degree of freedom under Russian rule up to the time of the German invasion. There were 14 Lithuanian representatives in the first and second duma, and five in the third and fourth duma.

"It was during the old period of restricting that so many Lithuanians went to the United States," added Mr. Ychas, "reaching 30,000 a year from 1870 to the outbreak of the war, and leaving 700,000 in large colonies about the United States—with 30 teachers, and their own clubs, theaters, societies. But the Lithuanian social they have found better own economic conditions; they own business homes, direct their own affairs, and enjoy political liberty. Influence is strong and wholesome."

Mr. Ychas says his faith in Americanizing among them while on his recent trip, his wife being a daughter of Dr. Sslupas of Scranton, Pa., one of the leading publicists of the Lithuanians. While in London Mme. Ychas has addressed large gatherings of Lithuanians.

ENGLISH FARMERS TO USE AMERICAN TWINE

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

LONDON, Dec. 11.—American twine will be used almost exclusively to bind next year's British harvest. Agents for the United States mills now on the spot have already placed enough orders for this purpose, despite earnest appeals to the farmers to give their business to the home manufacturers on patriotic grounds.

English farmers are told that if they would buy their twine from the English manufacturers they would effect a saving to the nation of $1,250,000 and 10,000 tons of cargo space for food shipping. Binder twine, it was pointed out, is bulky, occupying more than two and a quarter times the space required for deadweight.

The English farmers were also informed by the local trade that the manufacturers in this country were never in a better position to supply all their needs. Stocks were said to be higher than usual because the export of twine is prohibited. Eighty per cent of the people employed in the local mills are women so that there was no question of requiring male labor that might be needed on government work. As to prices it was claimed that the British manufacturer could compete favorably with the one across the Atlantic.

But for some unexplained reason the orders went to the Americans. The English farmers seemingly ignored all these appeals. The position was somewhat complicated in the case of dealers who handle American agricultural implements, as it is usually understood that these agents shall make a point of stocking American binder twine.

The Optimist

Devoted to Cheering Up the
"Land of Sunshine."

(By Gene Jones.)

Yesterday a colored gentleman got fined for treason. He got fined fifty bucks. With one blow he cut down a palmetto tree but unlike George Washington he made excuses. You see he used the front of his automobile to do the job.

THE VOICE OF THE DERELICT.
A crowd of us boys were cruising around
In a yacht through the Florida keys,
When we drifted her hard and fast aground
For the want of a bit of a breeze.

Under the lea of a mangro key
We stuck on the coral sand,
And it seemed to me that mangro key
Was a lonely place to land.

A mile off to port deep plunged in the shoal,
Lay a derelict grey and forgotten;
Her masts raked the sky like tottering trees,
And her hull slumped dirty and rotten.

We ran on the bar at the full of the ebb,
While the water was all in the bay,
So we knew we were in for a night on the reef
'Till the flood of the tide next day.

To the tune of the gulls and the smell of the key,
We supped while the shadows crept
Clean out of the east and darkened the sea
Where the rotting derelict slept.

And I got to figuring what she was
And wondering what I'd find,
And I stole away in an open skiff,
Leaving the fellows behind.
A crescent moon came out in the sky
And it stared at the wreck and the key,
And, curiously, I felt that the wreck
Was soddeningly staring at me.

When I rested my oars 'neath her barnacled fin,
And spelled out 'her port and her name,
It flashed in my mind a pirate she'd been—
—A pirate of Florida fame!

The damp of the fog shut me in like a pall
And I found I could not disperse
The fear and the dread of the thing long dead,
Cast there by a smuggler's curse!

And, somehow, the wreck with its cabins agape,
Like the mouth of a human skull,
Spoke in the soundless voice of death
To the tune of the screaming gull.

"Go 'way! Go 'way, and leave me alone!
The tale's too bloody to tell,
Leave me alone to lie here and groan,
I'm dead and my crew's in Hell.

Then clanking of chains I heard in the wreck,
'Till I shuddered and pulled away;
I wanted to climb to her old-fashioned deck,
Rotten with worms and decay.

But I reckoned the things in the derelict's hold Spelled death to the curious eye,
And the best for me if I looked to see,
Was to crawl away and die.

So I left her to grace the shore of the key
And the bed of the coral sand,
For it was no place for a human face—
The grave of a pirate band!

And over the reef on a breadth of the air,
Like a ghost of a buried tune,
(I knew not how and I knew not where)
There floated the derelict's croon.

So I looked around for the awful sound
Through the mist of the Southern sea;
The sound was the song of the ship
I'd found
To the lonely Florida key.

STEAMER SUNK SEVEN YEARS AGO RAISED

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

GUATEMALA CITY, Guatemala, Dec. 11.—The steamer Sesostris of the Kosmos Steamship company of Hamburg, which sank off this coast seven years ago, has been raised by the Skinner Syndicate of Seattle, Wash., and after the vessel has been repaired in the drydock at Panama, the derelict will be registered as an American vessel in the coastwise trade. She will be renamed Estrada Cabrera, in honor of the President of Guatemala. She has a net tonnage of 5,025. The Philadelphia Breakwater company made attempts to raise the vessel many years ago, but the work was abandoned as hopeless and the Skinner Syndicate was formed for the purpose, engaging the British Columbia Wrecking company for the work. It is estimated that after repairs have been made the recovered steamer will be worth nearly a million dollars.

Realized It Would Be Close.
The moment the razor touched his face, the man in the chair realized that he was in the hands of an amateur. "Will you have a close shave, sir?" asked the barber. "It looks like it," returned the victim, moodily. "At present the odds against my getting out of this chair alive seem very heavy, indeed."—Boston Transcript.

THE ORANGE CITY LINE RETAINS BOTH TRAINS

In connection with the recent change of schedule on the Flagler system, the New Smyrna News has the following to say in regard to the trains on the Orange City branch from New Smyrna: "Contrary to rumors which have been circulated in railroad circles that the change in schedule of trains on the Florida East Coast railroad, which went into effect yesterday, would show but one train each way a day on the Orange City Junction branch the new time cards show the two trains as they have always been run on the line. "The new time cards, however, show a change in the leaving time of the afternoon passenger train on the Orange City line. The train now leaves here at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, instead of 3:10, and arrives at Orange City Junction 20 minutes later. The train is held here 20 minutes longer for connection with the new Palm Beach Limited train, No. 34, from the south, which is scheduled to arrive at 3:20 p. m."

hygiene work such as is illustrated in the blank which you sent me from Daytona.

"An increasing attention is being given, however, to get children themselves interested in hygiene, especially all through the south. This is in part due to the influence of the Rockefeller Foundation who have given as you know, special attention to hygienic conditions affecting the welfare of the southern people.

"I think the Daytona report blank is a most admirable one and shows very clearly that the most intelligent effort is being made in Daytona to keep the school authorities in touch with health conditions as a basis for shaping the course of instructions in the schools in the light of those conditions. This last is exactly the same in principle as what we are attempting to do in Vocational education.

FAKE PEDDLER

GETS $50 FINE

W. A. Burke, who claimed to be an agent for the Princess shop, of which Max Roth is proprietor, and was peddling ready-to-wear women's garments in Midway yesterday, was arrested by Chief of Police T. O. Milton and fined $50 and costs in city police court this morning for selling goods without a license.

Burke was represented in court by Attorney F. W. Pope, but the evidence proved conclusively that Burke had sold goods and had no license to do so. For this reason Judge Titus fined the man the price of such a peddler's license which is $50 and costs. Burke immediately paid the fine rather than serve 60 days.

NEGRO BOYS STEAL LEAD FROM JOURNAL

Chief of Police T. O. Milton found recently that a local dealer had purchased a quantity of composition metal such as newspaper linotype machines use, and after questioning and investigating found that a negro in the employ of the Journal Printing company had given out the metal in small amounts to two or three other boys who had sold it and divided the profits.

Editor Sparkman would not do anything further about the matter than to appear in court this morning where the boys were severely reprimanded by Judge Titus for their petty pilfering.

If Chief Milton had not been on the job the Journal would soon have been entirely out of metal.
